The Bayle Gate was erected at the end of the 14th century, and forms the entrance to the precincts of the beautiful and interesting Priory Church of Bridlington. The gateway consists of two archways with a ribbed roof, above which is a room used as the Town Hall. It is almost the only remaining relic of the defences of the Old Priory which was destroyed in the 16th century.

We are having a nice time & going out every day. The weather is rather cold & it was raining all the morning but here we shall have it fine. The place is pretty full. Love from us all.
